

Cap de Castel

Escape the crowd for the week-end,
Experience the pastoral south of France,
or simply,
Share some time together

The Cap de Castel Hotel is a small charming hotel set within a typical medieval Mediterranean village located in-between Carcassonne, Toulouse and Albi, dominating the Lauragais hills and valleys renowned as “Little Tuscany”, in the rural south of France.

The hotel is named after the 13th century Castel (in Occitan patois), outbuildings and ramparts forming the property overlooking south the Pyrenees and Black Mountain chains. The breathtaking view is an invitation either to discover the surrounding gem-like villages, vineyards or simply relax on the shaded terrace nearby the pool.

Ten large bedrooms cosily decorated, set into two recently renovated 17th century buildings provide you intimacy and  comfort.
